About Sailender Singh

Sailender started his career in 1995 when BYST helped him with collateral-free loan of Rs. 32,000/- to set up a cottage level Flour-Grinding works (Atta Chakki) while assigning Sh. Rajive Chawla the responsibility of advising him as his "Mentor" and ensuring that this small sapling planted by BYST is watered and protected from harsh winds, sunlight and rains till it becomes self-sustaining and grows to become a tree. Sailender was dedicated in his work, was focused on growth, would scrupulously follow all advice, and maintained highest levels of business ethics as well as fiscal discipline. His loan repayment and EMI clearance was immaculate, irrespective of many unforeseen challenges that would come in way. He fully repaid his loan to BYST but continued his relationship with BYST and his Mentor. He had a desire to grow further and would leave no opportunity to discuss new business ideas and learn new things from Mr. Chawla.

Soon, he ventured out to new vistas & avenues. Today, he employs around 3000 workforce in his business of providing manpower, house keeping contracts, security etc. His annual turnover has touched almost Rs. 400 Lacs. He also provides employment to many rural women as well as people with different abilities, thereby providing opportunity to all sections of society to earn livelihood through decent work.
